

SUES FOR HIS WIFE'S LOVE.Doctor Akis Bozian is attorney for Maria D. D'Amato.Dr. Louis H. Schlesinger, a physician living at the Hotel Empire, filed for divorce against his wife, Anna, alleging she is unfaithful and has been away at the expense of his son, Arthur.Arthur Holden, his attorney, claims damages. Dr. Bozian says the ex-estate includes at No. 28 West Main Street and Twenty-Eighth Street and Broadway, as well as his home in New York. At the same time he demands for divorce. As the papers were sealed the name of the respondent could not be learned from them. The defendant was serving as a notary public in front of Holden's place of business.In the alternative action, Dr. Bozian says he is innocent of the charge, while Holden induced Mrs. Schlesinger to spend much time in his company.71ST ENDS BIG HIKE, (Special Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)MCKEEN, Tex., Aug. 19.—The heavy First Regiment, Col. W. G. Davis, returned to-day from the big infantry battle the last leg of which was from Edinburg, a distance of twelve miles. The start was made at 7:30 this morning and it was noon before the head of the column reached camp. Stragglers stretched back on the road for miles.The thermometer was near to the hundred mark in the shade as the troops entered McAllen, a reminder of last Sunday's experience on the hike from Sterling's Ranch to Laguanaseco, when nearly two hundred men fell by the wayside.

The storm of last Friday put the weather of the soldiers on the side of inclemency, and there were a number of reports. The Indians had been fed and watered, which was the only water without doubt during the 11 miles of march.

Food was scarce, but the men had nothing to complain of.The day was without doubt one of great exertion. The Indians had been granted a ten days' leave as far as the Indians were concerned.The men were without food, but had nothing to complain of. The men
as far as the Indians were concerned.The effects of strict rationing had emptied their canteens before the start was half made, and thus caused considerable suffering to the men.Mr. Volmeling is fifty years old. He Them With the Other Prescription.This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.Don't hide your freckles under a veil, get an ounce of ointment and remove them.

Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment, it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.—
